Kids on the Go

Kids on the Go is a program designed for active preschoolers who need extra stimulation, and for kindergarten-ready kids who have outgrown pre-school, but missed the cut-off date to start kindergarten. Each week children will explore a variety of fun activities. Imagination, socialization and creativity are encouraged. Activities will take place both inside and outside, including physical fitness and movement, puzzles, science and nature, crafts, games, music and rhythm, snack time and more. Children must be potty-trained.

Daddy Daughter Date Night

This special night is meant for just Dads and Daughters. The Arbor Park School comes alive with colored lights, balloons, sweetheart decorations and music that will fill the night. A photographer (at an additional charge) is available to capture this night's memories, and you can take your pictures home that evening. As tradition goes, each lovely lady will receive an elegant corsage. Truly a night to be remembered! This dance ends with a balloon drop. For more information, call Kirstin at (708) 687-7270 ext. 132.

No refunds will be given for this event. Must register in advance!
